

The beautiful, stylish kitchens of your dreams are to be found at Veneta Cucine!

The building boom in Aruba is placing new demands on the design and construction industries, but a quick, quality and elegant solution is available on the Cayo Milo Croes in Dakota at the new Veneta Cucine showroom.

Interior designers and those that want a beautiful home attended the opening of the new shop hosted by Manager Mariacarmen Faria and the Vibrations team of Maria DaSilva and Fernando Mansur on Thursday evening, July 20. It would not be an exaggeration to say they were thrilled with what they saw. The showcased rooms, presenting kitchen ideas as never seen before in Aruba, with completed kitchens of the highest quality manufactured in Italy drew ohhhs and ahhs from observers.

Veneta Cucine is a leader in the manufacture of kitchen furniture. It has a worldwide presence, with a network of nearly 1,000 retailers in Europe, Asia, and both North and South America. They manufacture over 37,000 quality kitchens per year, shipping them to all corners of the globe, and now Aruba.

Veneta Cucine offers its clients award winning quality that is recognize by the prestigious German institute TUV. All kitchens are delivered with a certificate of authenticity that they have passed quality testing and controls of the highest standard.

A variety of choices in finish, appliances, modules, and cabinetry are on display, which can be mixed and matched to suit any home. State of the art virtual computer programs allow homeowners to tell Veneta Cucine experts what they want, and then see it completed before them on the screen. They can then experiment with various layouts and placements to achieve the optimal use of their kitchen space. Whether choosing solid wood, laminated chipboard or stainless steel, the client will find the results will be a kitchen where they will be as proud to entertain guests as they would be in their dining room. No longer is the kitchen a room to be hidden away and utilized only for cooking, Veneta Cucine creates an environment in which the whole family can dine, entertain, and live. The kitchen is often the center of the home, and it deserves to be a place that is not only convenient, but an invigorating and enjoyable place to relax and appreciate your beautiful house.

On display along with the kitchen units were furniture and accessories provided by The Jungle, which perfectly complemented the color combinations and styles of the elegant cabinets and countertops in the sample setups. Mariacarmen stated that customers can expect a delivery time of four months after their initial order and down payment, and they will send in their experts to check measurements and make sure that the cabinets will fit exactly. Interior designers with whom they maintain associations can assist in the design process.

At a time when houses are cropping up everywhere, and the demand for quality and style at a competitive price is at an all time high, the kitchens of Veneta Cucine, which come with a lifetime guarantee, are arriving just in time. Not only do they carry contemporary Italian style for the more modern home, but also traditional cabinets that go perfectly with the characteristic Aruban Cunucu home. Their model kitchens can be viewed at their website; www.venetacucine.com, or visit their showroom at 22 D. Milo J. Croes Avenue.
